a: No, it is not a chorus line, but instead a parade of leather, canvas, lame', Suede and loafer shoes.

b: Resting in a familiar place, All Star tennis shoes are still a popular choice in footwear.

c: Maybe he has a pair just like it at home?

d: Caution: Child on Phone! The wall is a perfect place for saddle shoes.

e: Laced boots adorned with crests are part of the fashion trend in 1987.

f: Penny Loafers and leather flats with confetti colors prove a popular choice in 1987.

g: Granny style boots are a favorite of teens in '87. This style is just what Grandma use to wear!

Special Skills

Practical arts played a big role at Calumet this year. Calumet offers everything from woodshop and welding to cooking.

Drafting is also available if that is what catches your eye. If Graphic Arts or any handicrafts interest you, you are in luck. You will be graded on the quality and appearance of your work.

Taking Care Of Business

Taking care of business is one thing Calumet can do. When it comes to the business department we don't mess around. Each student is prepared for what they need in the future.

Typing classes are offered for everyone regardless of speed from beginner to expert.

For the more serious and advanced business person, intensive lab was available. Under the leadership of Miss Eva Simic, each student is well prepared for business.

CHS Clubs Are It!

The Spanish Club this year visited Indiana State University for a Spanish contest. Juniors and Seniors were required to make a paper mache taco. The team came in first and the taco third. In the Spanish Quiz Bowl, Calumet was third and in the skit competition, the Spanish Club took another first place.

The French Club is planning a trip this summer to Italy and France. The trip will be fun, interesting, and educational.

The Drama Club was ready to begin production of the Spring play but had to cancel because of unfortunate conditions.

Autographs

Picture these memories ... a glittering class ring ... a pressed Prom flower enclosed between the pages of a book ... a dangling tassel on a rear view mirror ... a ticket stubs from sectional ... a faded letter jacket of red and white ... words scrawled across the pages of a yearbook ... exciting newspaper sports clippings ... a yellowing graduation program ... a treasured diploma.

Picture the future ... friends ... family ... advanced educational skills ... high tech changes ... employment ...

changing lifestyles ... a future filled with challenges and promise.

The Chieftain staff would like to thank Mr. Ray Dobbs and Root Photographers and Miss Donna Arington, representative for Newsfoto Yearbooks.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 2000). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has also published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners.
